SUPPORT AT HOME (AGED CARE)

Indicative Pricing Schedule (Effective 1 July 2026)

Important Information

SA Disability Care is committed to providing transparent and value-for-money services under the Australian Government's Support at Home Program.

Our pricing has been developed in line with the Support at Home Program requirements, funding arrangements, and applicable Government pricing guidelines.

Service prices are designed to cover the delivery of high-quality care and support, including workforce costs, service coordination, and travel.

(where applicable), compliance, and operational expenses associated with providing safe and effective services.

All prices remain subject to the Australian Government's Support at Home Program requirements and any applicable price limits or funding arrangements.

Care Management

Care Management helps coordinate your care and services to support you in achieving your goals and living safely and independently at home. Your Care Partner will work with you to develop and review your Care Plan, manage your services, and help you make the most of your available funding.

Under the Support at Home Program, ten percent (10%) of your government funding is allocated to Care Management, with the remaining funding available for your services.

Other

Service	Price
Participant Contributions	You may be required to make a contribution to the cost of your care. The percentage you are required to pay is determined by your income and assets assessment completed by Services Australia. Further information is available on My Aged Care.
Meal Delivery	$5.00 per meal (unit) delivered.

Self-Management

Where you are self-managed and receive services from others you choose (and which we approve), we will charge the cost of that service, plus 10%. Our charges are required to ensure all workers are appropriately trained and credentialed, and to process service claims against your package funding

CHANGES TO SCHEDULED VISITS

48 hours notice is required for cancellations (no charge if met). Changes within 48 hours or missed visits will incur a charge of 100% of the service price.

Compassionate Care. Independence. Respect. Integrity. Excellence.

Provider Travel	$1.2/km	Travel associated with service delivery
